The dates for the 2011 Alabama All-State Choral Festival have been set for March 24 – 26. The site for the festival is Samford University in Birmingham, AL.

These dates have been confirmed for more than 9 months. The considerations that determine the choice of dates are the availability of Samford University to host the event, Alabama testing schedule, spring break dates, and the National ACDA Convention.

The Alabama Vocal Association is aware that testing dates have windows of opportunity. Therefore, attempts have been made to set dates in such a manner that would comply with the administration of such tests. Hopefully, by knowing the dates in advance for AVA statewide events, it may be possible for school systems to schedule so as to allow students to participate.

Thank you for your support of choral music within our great state.
